Prayer of confession

Eternal God, our judge and redeemer, we confess that we have tried to hide from you, for we have done wrong. We have lived for ourselves, and apart from you. We have turned from our neighbors, and refused to bear the burdens of others. We have ignored the pain of the world, and passed by the hungry, the poor, and the oppressed. In your great mercy forgive our sins and free us from selfishness, that we may choose your will and obey your commandments; through Jesus Christ our Savior.

Continue with Intercessory Prayer ending with the Lord's Prayer.

Psalm 130:4 "But there is forgiveness with You, That You may be feared."

To respond to God's call to give to Him our sacrifice of offerings and praise

The Offertory Call

Sermon Notes

One of the historical differences between Cumberland Presbyterians and other Presbyterians is that we hold revival services whereas most other Presbyterians do not.

There are many examples of prayers for revival throughout the Scriptures.

If it is Biblical to pray for revival and to expect God to send a revival, then it is Biblical to hold revival services asking God to revive us.

We have examples of God's revivals in the Bible.

If God sent revival in the past, then He can send one today.

There is a basic need for God's people to be revived.

The churches in the book of Revelation serve as examples of churches needing revival.

There are specific signs of revival.

Announcements

Next Sunday we will have a potluck dinner at 5 p.m. with the Dedication Service for the FLC following the dinner.

After the dedication service there will be a special singing in the sanctuary before revival service. Lauren Christy will be the singer.

Each revival service will be at 7 p.m. and will have a special emphasis - Sunday night: special singing. Monday night: youth night. Tuesday night: generations night. Wednesday night: communion and ice cream fellowship afterwards.

Revival speaker is Rev. Kevin Medlin, pastor of the Lebanon Cumberland Presbyterian Church. This church has experienced growth and blessings under his preaching.
